Ritter Center Welcomes New Board Member, Miriam Manning

[San Rafael, CA] – Ritter Center, a nonprofit dedicated to preventing and resolving homelessness and improving health and well-being for individuals and families in Marin County, proudly announces the appointment of Miriam Manning to its Board of Directors.

Miriam Manning is an accomplished litigation and bankruptcy attorney with nearly three decades of experience representing trustees, debtors, and committees in complex Chapter 7 and 11 cases. Recognized in Best Lawyers in America (2019–2023) for her expertise in bankruptcy, insolvency, and litigation, Miriam is known for cultivating respectful relationships while zealously advocating for her clients. She has also held leadership roles with the San Francisco Bar Association and the International Women’s Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation of Northern California.

Passionate about advancing social justice, Miriam currently volunteers as an attorney with the Justice and Diversity Center of the SF Bar Association, providing legal advice to low-income clients navigating housing, debt collection, and property disputes. A UC Berkeley graduate with a J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law, Miriam brings a deep commitment to equity and community service.

“We are delighted to welcome Miriam to our Board of Directors,” said Mark Shotwell, CEO of Ritter Center. “Her legal expertise and dedication to social justice will be an incredible asset as we continue to strengthen services for Marin’s most vulnerable populations.”

Ritter Center looks forward to collaborating with Miriam Manning as the organization continues to provide critical services, including primary healthcare, behavioral healthcare, housing assistance, and case management for those in need.
